Last nite, we are very happy to have more than 60 guests coming to our Practica Otro, we are really thankful for your support! and hope you will be joining us onwards ...

but ... really sorry for the air conditioning, the venue had just finished the renovation a day before and the air-conditioning is not working properly ... we will get it fixed surely for the next time!

And thank you for all those who has helped us one way or the other without we even asking ... someone who changed the water bottle, Agnes and Teddy who helped at the reception, Mann who initiated to take photo and video for us, Ah Shan who help to fix the banner and get our logo sticker back to us ... all these little help are really very much appreciated and make us feel very warm ... big kisses for all of you!

If you have any comments, suggestions to our practica, please let us know by email to otrotango@hotmail.com or Visit our blog at <http://practica-otrotango.blogspot.com/> for photos, informations ... and tell us what you think and together we want to make it a better place for you!
